

THE CLIMAX.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1888.

Water works.
Talk for the water works.
The Chicago Regain commenced Monday.

Now is the time to advance the interests of Richmond.

The Barlow Mill will be sold at public auction next Friday.

Dr. C. C. Smith reports much sickness—fever and flux—in the Elliott district.

Read the Tribune advertisement of several farms for sale by executors of Alexander Tribble.

Mr. J. B. Willis has retired from the hotel business and has rented rooms in the Texas property on Second street.

Central University will begin its annual session this morning. A large number of students have arrived, and there is promise of a successful year.

The Lexington Press says Billy Devere is the boss "bum" of the State, fully taking in all the fairs this year, and came home with his pockets full.

The Madison National Bank building and Mr. John Farley's store are having a new coat of paint. This will add materially to the appearance of Main street.

The Independent Order of Immaculata will celebrate their seventh anniversary in this place on Saturday, Sept. 29th. Street parade, and music by the Nicholasville band.

Eight or ten boys and girls from Easton county passed through Richmond, this week, en route for various schools. Why do not our own institutions have a firmer hold in Easton?

Bishop Dudley will be here on Saturday and a class will be confirmed on Sunday. Mr. Reincke, Business Manager of the "Churchman" will accompany him, on Monday, to Beattyville.

The property on Main street advertised for sale by Mrs. Faulconer and Mrs. Byron on last Saturday, was not sold. Bids were not sufficiently large and the owners have decided not to sell at present.

The Methodist Conference is in session this week at Nicholasville. Dr. Henderson and Judge Scott are in attendance. Dr. Henderson will probably be returned here next year, as both his churches have petitioned for his return.

An error in our paper last week made us say in a local column, headed "Notice Warning," May Rice instead of Mary Rice, and the article was signed P. C. Rice instead of Jas. C. Rice. The notice as corrected will be found in another column.

Mr. T. B. Taylor, now of Winchester, arrived here Monday evening quite ill with fever. He was met at the depot by his brother, Mr. D. Z. Taylor who conveyed him to his home in Waco in a buggy. He has been ill for several days and it is feared that he will have a serious spell of sickness.

Miss Mary Belle Miller, so well known among us for her musical skill, has gone to Green Hill, Tenn., to take charge of a class in music at that place. Miss Miller has a host of friends in this place, who will regretfully miss her departure from Richmond, with every success and happiness in her new home.

We desire to call attention to Mdlle. Breddell's chorus which will organize to-morrow evening. Richmond has all ways had an excellent reputation for musical talent, and this opportunity for improvement should not be neglected. Mdlle. Breddell is well known here already and comes with the highest recommendations from Lexington and elsewhere.

In last week's issue we noticed that J. C. J. Jr., the eight year old son of Mr. John C. Ballard while playing with a pocket knife accidentally struck the point of the blade into his eye. Dr. Taylor was summoned and pronounced the accident a serious one and advised that he be taken at once to Dr. Sadler, of Cincinnati. Mr. Ballard rushed him down on the afternoon train. Dr. Sadler says that the sight is entirely gone and is endeavoring to prevent the ball from decaying and to save the other eye. It was a painful wound but the child bore it like a soldier.

We publish an announcement this morning from Mr. H. J. Albertzart in which he tells the people of Richmond that the City Council has decided to have all the houses in Richmond numbered. They have made a contract with Mr. Albertzart to put up the numbers on all houses and the city furnishes, free, a plain black and white number on a piece of tin. Many persons will probably wish much handsome numbers, and to all such Mr. Albertzart desires us to state that he will furnish more elegant numbers at very reasonable prices. He will call on the week. We hope the people will see to it that Richmond is as handsomely decorated with house numbers as any other city. It will add to the beauty of our little city.

Fire Seed Wheat.

In another column Mr. W. B. Jones, of Silver Creek, announces seed wheat for sale. We call attention to the fine sample to be seen at this office.

"Lizzie Ben."

At the Paris fair last week Mr. W. C. French's baby, Lizzie Ben, by Mambrino Eric, had a walk over for the Futurity stakes for two-year-olds. Value $500. Another Sule S. we presume.

For Assessor.

In this issue of the CLIMAX we publish an announcement from C. R. Tudor as a candidate for Assessor of Madison county, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Tudor announces himself a candidate in response to an appeal from "Many Voters of Madison," which indicates his popularity.

Madison Female Institute.

Madison Female Institute opened on Monday. The number of pupils in attendance is fully up to any previous year. The number of boarders on the first day was as large as at any one time last session and more yet are expected. All available space has been engaged. Altogether the outlook is flattering.

Specimens of Gold.

Several fine specimens of gold from the Black Hills are on exhibition in our office. They were sent by one of the subscribers to the CLIMAX, Mr. J. H. Crandall, of Lead City, Dakota. Mr. Crandall says he can furnish any kind of specimens of any kind of rock at reasonable prices. The specimens sent us, he says, are worth from 50 cents to $1.50. Our thanks are due Mr. Crandall for the specimens.

J. H. Bogs's Sale.

The Bogs's sale came off last Tuesday as announced, with Capt. Ballard as auctioneer, and Mr. J. E. Greenleaf, clerk.

6 fancy Polaris China shirts sold at $1.05 per yard; 60 head of cattle, different ages, sold at $4.00; 1 yoke oxen $100; 1 yoke $100; 1 yoke $99; 1 yoke $83. Old corn sold at $1.35 per barrel. No land was sold.

Abolition Park.

We extend the thanks of THE CLIMAX to the Abolition Park Association for a complimentary ticket to the fall celebration to be held at Cynthia, Tuesday and Wednesday, September 18th and 19th.

The entries to this thrilling meeting are many and consist of some of Kentucky's best animals. Admission 50 cents. Ladies free. For particulars address A. S. Welch, Secretary.

Court of Appeals.

From the docket of the Court of Appeals, September term, we learn that the cases of Clay vs. Chennault, and of Moore vs. Moore's Heirs are set for October 3rd. Under the Argument Docket, the case of Barlow, & Co. vs. McClintock is set for November 13th. Also the Docket of the Superior Court puts the cases of Rowland, Guardian vs. Doolan's Adm., and Dunn's Trustee vs. McAlpin & Co., for Wednesday, September 27th.

Cleveland or Harrison?

A novel scheme has been hit upon by Lorillard's "Climax" Plug Tobacco Co. It consists of a card with detachable circulars, with the request that each voter take one and return it to the company with a red tin tag taken from the "Climax" Plug Tobacco, placed over the name of the Presidential ticket which the persons intend to vote for.

Beneath is a certificate which the person giving up the card will receive. The card is entitled to vote and will vote for the ticket to which he has attached the red tin tag. The company will count the vote thus received about Oct. 10th and publish the result. They believe that a very fair estimate can be obtained in this way.

Misses Saille and Lucia Barnum have returned from an extended trip to Lake Champlain, Quebec and White Mountains.

Miss Kyle, who is in charge of the music department of Madison Female Institute, has returned to resume her duties for the ensuing year.

Mr. G. F. Edwards and son and three other gentlemen of Easton county left yesterday for Bozeman, Montana, on a prospecting trip.

Mr. Jas. R. Stoffer has gone East to purchase a new stock of fall and winter goods. Mr. Stoffer will bring back an excellent stock as he always buys well and sells cheap.

Mr. J. H. McDowell formerly with this CLIMAX is now in Cincinnati where he has secured a position in the Revenue office under Collector W. T. Bishop. Mr. McDowell's many friends will be glad to hear of his success.

We don't intend to tell any tales out of school, but to say that Judge French Tipton of THE RICHMOND CLIMAX, is one of the luckiest men in Kentucky. Paste this in your hat for thirty days—Lexington Observer.

The Observer man has been drinking hard of late.

The Decatur, Ala., Free Lance says of former ticket agent here: "Mr. J. I. McKinney, the popular and efficient agent of the L. & N. road in this city, has received notice of his promotion of master of trains on the Birmingham Mineral, a part, or rather several parts of the L. & N. system, running out of Birmingham. Mr. McKinney will assume the duties of his new position at once, which give him the control of twenty-seven cars a day, running over nearly 150 miles of track. It is a difficult and responsible task, but Mr. Harahan knows his man, and Mack will fill the bill. The people of Decatur part from J. I. McKinney with sincere regret. Full of energy and ambition in his chosen vocation, and most pleasant and accommodating in his career in this city, he won equally the confidence of the L. & N. management and the people of Decatur, and he will leave here many warm friends."
